Definition of beneficial owner according to the Anti-Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Law

In line with the provisions of the Anti-Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Law, the Bank is obliged to establish and verify the identity of the client's beneficial owner.

Legal entity's beneficial owner shall be any natural person (persons) that ultimately owns or controls the customer or on whose behalf a transaction is conducted, and shall include at least:

A) natural person (persons) who owns or controls a legal person through direct ownership via a sufficient percentage of stocks, including the bearer shares, or voting right shares or equity stakes in that legal person; Please specify also those natural persons who have a smaller percentage of ownership so that the entire customer's ownership structure can be determined even in cases where the ownership is divided in stakes of 25% or less than that.

The indication of direct ownership held by a natural person in the legal person shall be the ownership of over 25% of equity stakes, voting or other rights on the basis of which he/she shall exercise the right of managing the legal person, or the ownership of 25% plus one share;

B) natural person (persons) who controls a legal person through indirect ownership by way of sufficient percentage of stocks, including bearer shares or voting right shares or equity stakes in that legal person. The indication of indirect ownership shall be the ownership or control of the same natural person (persons) over one or more legal persons which hold, individually or jointly, over 25% equity stakes or 25% plus one share;

C) natural person (persons) who has a controlling function in managing the legal person's property using other means. Controlling position in managing the legal person's property through other means may also refer to the control criteria used when preparing consolidated financial reports, for example, via the shareholders' agreement, exercising of the prevailing influence and powers for appointing high-level management.

D) Subsidiary beneficial ownership: in the case when there are no natural persons who would qualify as beneficial owners as regards the ownership or controlling function, and in such cases directors/management board members shall be deemed beneficial owners.

E) Beneficial owners of domestic and foreign associations and their unions, foundations, formations, institutions, art organisations, chambers, labour unions, employers' associations, political parties, cooperatives, credit unions or religious communities shall be any natural person authorised for representation or natural person holding a controlling position in managing the property.

F) Beneficial owners of trusts and entities equal thereto, incorporated under foreign law, shall be natural persons who eventually control that legal person: settlors, trustees, protectors, beneficiaries or a group of trust beneficiaries, members of the council/board and other natural persons exercising the control.
